This sixth annual event will highlight hands-on participation in the visual, performing and literary arts. The event is made possible by The Arts Council of Greater Weston, the City of Weston and Weston Town Center, in collaboration with Young at Art Museum. Activities for all ages, including the popular 28 feet long Graffiti Wall on which everyone can express their artistic talents, an open-air art studio hosted by Young at Art and a musical “petting zoo” for budding musicians of all ages. Performances from local schools will be ongoing throughout the afternoon.

Free face painting, a balloon artist, and a caricature artist will be on site. High school clubs will offer a range of displays and participation activities.
